FOREWORD

The New England History Teachers' Association was founded in the spring of 1897. Its organization resulted from an invitation, by the members of the Conference on College Entrance Requirements in History, appointed by the New England Association of College and Preparatory Schools, issued to a number of teachers of history and school principals requesting their presence at a preliminary meeting "to consider the advisability of forming a permanent organization of teachers of history and government." Mr. Ray G. Huling, Head Master of the Cambridge English High School, presided at the preliminary meeting. In the spring of 1898, a constitution was adopted and an election of officers held with the following results; President, Edwin A. Start of Tufts College, Vice-President, Anna B. Thompson of Thayer Academy, Secretary, A. P. Walker of the English High School, Boston, Additional Council Members, Albert B. Hart of Harvard University, Edward G. Bourne of Yale University, Mary E. Whipple of the English High School, Worcester, Frederick Winsor of Phillips Exeter Academy.

The purpose of the Association as stated in its constitution, "is the advancement of the study of history, government, and economics by the discussion and dissemination of ideas and by the promotion of social relations among teachers of these subjects in the schools and colleges of New England."

For the furtherance of these ends, the Association holds a spring and a fall meeting each year. At these meetings, papers are read and discussed and committee reports are considered. Following the meetings, a luncheon is held at which the members are addressed on some subject of professional interest. Meetings have been held in Boston, Worcester, Springfield, Portland, Providence and elsewhere.

Much of the good work of the Association is done by committees the result of whose labor is frequently published. Following is a partial list of the publications of the Association.

In 1897, Reports on Methods of Teaching and Study.

In 1898 and 1900, Reports on College Entrance Requirements.
